TRAINING-SCHOOL FINALS LAST NIGHT

President Blackwell Delivers an Able Address to Newly Graduated Kindergartners.

The commencement exercises of the Richmond Training School for Kindergartners was held in the Woman's Club last evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

A very fine, finished and scholarly address was made by President Blackwell, of Randolph-Macon College, which was listened to by the graduators and a large and deeply interested audience.

Diplomas were awarded by Mr. W. S. Copeland upon the graduates of a two-years' course-Miss Adair Minor, Miss Lvelyn Gray Beile, Miss Katherine L. Bullock and Miss Lucy Singleton Coleman; also upon those completing a three years' course-Miss M. Annie Bates, Miss Labelle G. Copeland them made a short address of advice and encouragement to the graduates.

The closing of the exercises was followed by an alumnae reception, to which a few friends of the alumnae were invited. The president of the Alumnae Association of the Richmond Training School, Miss Lou Belle Catesby Jones, made a report and welcomed the graduates. The secretary, Miss Buchanan, and the treasurer, Miss Bates gave an excellent account of their work in the public schools and its success.

The president of the association announced that its work for next year would be in conjunction with that undertaken by the Civic Improvement League and would include the supervision and direction of the playgrounds established by the league.

Mr. Cooke then gave a talk in regard to the playgrounds laid out by the league and showed the necessity for intelligent co-operation.

In the reference which appeared in Sunday's Times-Dispatch concerning the graduates of the training school, the name of Miss Pannie Calborne Pittman, the daughter of the late Captain O. P. Pittman, of North Carolina, was omitted, Miss Pittman graduated in the class of 1963, having previously attended the kindergarten department of the Ethical Culture Schools of New York city.

CITY ELECTION.

Light Vote Expected for Mayor and Council.

and Council.

This is election day in Richmond and indeed, in all the cities of the State. The polls will open at sunrise and close at sunset, and the only officers to be voted for will be Mayor and Councilmen. There is no opposition to the council ticket here, but Captain Carlton McCarthy, the Demoratic nominee, for Mayor, has two opponents. They are Henry L. Rhod's (Socialist), and Rev. W. 2. Talley (Independent). A light vote is anticipated here, but enough Democrats will likely turn out to save the ticket. The officers chosen today will enter upon their duties on September 1st, 1994. Chairman Doherty has issued an appeal to the Democrats to go to the polls in order that Captain McCarthy may be elected beyond all question.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—"There is absolutely nothing in it all, this talk about the Virginia delegation being for somebody else than Judge Parker for the nomination," said Senator Martin, of Virginia, to-night. "I have not paid any attention to such stories. They are absurd. I know there are some on the delegation, who are not favorable to the nomination of Judge Parker, but we will be under the unit rule at the convention, and the vote of the delegation will be be under the unit rule at the convention, and the vote of the delegation will be cust as a majority will direct.
